

THE HYDROGRAPHIC SOCIETY OF AMERICA
SOUTHEAST CHAPTER BY LAWS
(Revised Nov 24, 2020)

SECTION-1 NAME

The Name of the chapter is The Hydrographic Society of America – Southeast Chapter, hereinafter also referred to as the “Chapter”.

SECTION-2 OFFICE

The Chapter shall not retain a principle office but will publish a mailing address to members on the Society’s website (www.thsoa.org) for member’s communications. For all other business matters, the Chapter shall utilize the principle office of The Hydrographic Society of America, Inc. SECTION-3 OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Chapter shall be the advancement and promotion of the science of surveying at sea and related sciences, including, but not limited to, offshore surveying, positioning and mapping, and hydrography. To accomplish this objective, the Chapter shall be organized and operated for scientific and educational purposes as follows:

Said corporation is organized exclusively for educational, charitable, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code or individuals in pursuit of higher education in the offshore sciences and engineering disciplines or other such educational pursuits as the board deem worthy as follows:

a. To enable technologists and others engaged in or interested in hydrography and related sciences to meet, correspond, promote, encourage, and coordinate the study of such sciences in all and any of their aspects by:

- Arranging regular meetings for its members and guests;

b. To accumulate, extend, increase, disseminate and publish information and knowledge relating thereto and to facilitate the exchange of information, knowledge and ideas on all subjects and related matters of interest in this field by:

- Organizing regular technical presentations, field visits and member networking events;
- Representing and communicating information regarding the regional offshore surveying community to The Hydrographic Society of America.

c. To encourage research in hydrography and the practical application of technological knowledge so developed by:

- Promoting the offshore survey, positioning and mapping professions to colleges, universities, educational organizations and to industry and government organizations;
- Commit a portion of the Chapter’s annual income to the creation and support of student scholarship programs.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a.) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

SECTION-4 AFFILIATION

The Southeast Chapter of The Hydrographic Society of America is a local chapter of The Hydrographic Society of America, Inc. (hereinafter also known as “THSOA” and/or the “Society”). THSOA was incorporated in the State of Maryland (United States) in 1984 and was granted status as a non-profit organization by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service in 1985. Local Regional Chapters of the THSOA are involved in the following activities:
